

Chrysanthos Hadjichrysanthou is an airline captain with more than 40 years of international aviation experience, having served with Cyprus Airways, Etihad Airways, and Qatar Airways. He has extensive experience on Airbus aircraft, as well as the Boeing 777 and 787, and is a long-serving Airbus A320 instructor and examiner.

A former IFALPA Regional Vice President Europe Technical, he was also a founding member of the Flight Safety Foundation Southeast Europe, serving on its Board of Directors for six years. Since 2023, he has served as President of the Board of Directors, leading the Foundation's commitment to advancing aviation safety across the region.

He holds a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) from the University of London and graduated from The English School, Nicosia, in 1977.